

Windham Airport Master Plan Update Windham, Connecticut

Description

Under contract to a larger aviation planning and engineering firm, FHI documented environmental impacts in areas of natural, cultural and social resources to the Master Plan Update of Windham Airport. Responsibilities included environmental and natural resource inventories, alternatives analysis, and environmental impact review. FHI was also responsible for orchestration of the public involvement program.

Client

Connecticut Department of Transportation

